About IFA Countryside

IFA Countryside was set up almost 20 years ago and is open to anyone who shares a passion for the countryside. We are a division of the Irish Farmers' Association; Ireland's largest farming organisation who has worked for Irish farmers for over 65 years. IFA Countryside shows the same level of dedication and professionalism by using our experience to support the outdoor activities you love whilst giving you an excellent package of benefits and services.

Our Mission

We pride ourselves on being a voice for rural Ireland and for people who enjoy countryside pursuits.

It is important to IFA Countryside to protect the rural way of life and safeguard the future of field sports.

Representation

We are committed to representing you on the challenges which you face. Some of the issues we campaign on include:

Legislation - Control of Certain Wild Birds

Firearm Regulations

Deer Licensing & Coillte Permits

Lead Ban

Rural Security

- Over 80% of land in Ireland is privately owned. Access to this land for recreation is down to the goodwill of the landowners/farmers.
- Many people visit farmland as guests to enjoy their countrysports.
- IFA Countryside is committed to effective representation on issues which affect our farming & countryside members. Both groups are intertwined.
- Farmers rely on gun club members for vermin control. IFA Countryside is in a unique position to maintain & develop this relationship & developing stronger links with landowners.
